JUBA SANSKAR PROGRAMME

Topic: "Imparting Ethical and Spiritual Values Among Students"

Dt. 03.07.2023

Juba Sanskar Programme on "Imparting Ethical and Spiritual Value Among Students" was conducted by IQAC in collaboration with NSS, NCC and YRC on 03.07.2023 at 11:30 a.m. inside the Auditorium Hall to inculcate ethical and spiritual values among the students. These values play an essential role in a students' life as they help build positive traits such as compassion, humility, kindness and respect. Ethical values can make students distinguish between right and wrong, good and bad which eventually will promote rational thinking and unbiased judgement.

The programme started with the lighting of the lamp and paying homage to the great Indian sage Vyasadeva . Sri Amar Prasad Bishoyee, NAAC Coordinator, presided over the meeting and Dr. Smaranika Hota, IQAC Coordinator coordinated the programme. Sri Amar Prasad Bishoyee presented the concept of the programme and advised the students to imbibe ethical value in their day-to-day life. Sri Simanchala Bhola, Reader in Philosophy and Academic Bursar, spoke about the significance of Indian cultural heritage and advised the students to imbibe the spirit of Indian thought. Sri Bhola spoke at length about one of the greatest sages of all time, Vyasadeva who had compiled the Vedas, Puranas and the Brahma Sutras. Dr. Niranjan Guru, Reader in Economics encouraged the students to pay respect to parents and elders and utilize their time meaningfully. Sri Laxmi Narayan Panda, Reader in Odia, spoke about the importance of Guru or Teacher in the life of a human being.

Students in large numbers participated in the programme and spoke on different issues pertaining to academics, personality development, career paths and importance of values such as honesty, integrity and sincerity.

The programme ended with a Vote of Thanks by Dr. Smaranika Hota, Coordinator, IQAC.
