DETAILS OF ICT ENABLED TOOLS USED FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING

The Information and Communication Technology has helped to enhance the teaching learning process. It blends audio-visual presentation with internet-based learning thereby leaving deep impression in the students minds and firing their imaginative spirit. Use of internet in the teaching-learning process fosters creativity among the students. Ganjam College has subscribed to a dedicated high speed internet facility with a bandwidth of 300 Mbps. Taking a great leap forward we encourage our teachers to use ICT in their daily teaching process. The following ICT tools are used to enrich the Academics of our institute.

CONCEPT NOTE

LECTURE I:
OUR APPROACHES TO CRITICISM THROUGH CHINUA ACHEBE'S
'Things Fall Apart' -- by Dr. Bijaya Ku. Danta

Literary Criticism helps us analyze literature; it offers us not only options but informed orientations about how to read well which could as well mean how to read differently. To this end literary criticism alerts us to different elements of literature such as structure, form, content, language among others. It would be interesting to see what questions we ask while reading a particular text from a particular perspective. This lecture intends to understand four critical perspectives -- 1) Formalism, 2) Structuralism, 3) Marxist Criticism & 4) Feminist Criticism making us understand Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart.

LECTURE II:
'AMERICANNES OF AMERICAN LITERATURE'
by Dr. Farheena Danta

This lecture revisits the Americanness of American Literature by looking at the American presence in literature. American Literature is marked by a sense of belatedness and ethnicity. Key figures like Emerson and Whitman helped to shape an American identity. While Emerson showed the way to counter the European influence through the individual, Whitman gave shape to Emerson's ideas by spreading horizons. America to include everything and everyone in the American Self. Both Emerson and Whitman were focused on content more than on form; while Emerson looked at poetic-making argument while Whitman relied on speech-floods to carry his poetic impact.
